Xenophon de re Equestri, Græcè. Paper. 4to. Sæc. XV. No.
4678.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance and that it has not been completely solved. The author then presents a new method for solving the problem.
The method is based on the use of the Fourier transform. It is shown that the Fourier transform of the function  $f(x)$  is
given by the formula
$$F(\omega) = \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} f(x) e^{-i\omega x} dx$$

and that the inverse Fourier transform is
given by the formula
$$f(x) = \frac{1}{2\pi} \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} F(\omega) e^{i\omega x} d\omega$$

The author then shows that the Fourier transform of the function  $f(x)$  is
given by the formula
$$F(\omega) = \frac{1}{\sqrt{2\pi}} \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} f(x) e^{-i\omega x} dx$$

and that the inverse Fourier transform is
given by the formula
$$f(x) = \frac{1}{\sqrt{2\pi}} \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} F(\omega) e^{i\omega x} d\omega$$

The author then shows that the Fourier transform of the function  $f(x)$  is
given by the formula
$$F(\omega) = \frac{1}{\sqrt{2\pi}} \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} f(x) e^{-i\omega x} dx$$

and that the inverse Fourier transform is
given by the formula
$$f(x) = \frac{1}{\sqrt{2\pi}} \int_{-\infty}^{\infty} F(\omega) e^{i\omega x} d\omega$$

A very ancient Historical MS. not later than the Twelfth Century. It contains Two Curious Attestations by former Possessors in MS. which shew the value attached to it in those days. A copy of the first is here given.

1200 CICERONIS (MARCI TULLII) ORATIONES.

A Valuable MS. of the Fifteenth Century, upon Vellum, with richly illuminated Capitals. It appears by the following Notes of the Scribe on the Oration pro C. Rabirio, to have been copied from a very ancient MS. "In vetustissimo exemplari deerat una pagina" (paucula quædam deesse videntur, say the Commentators) and again at the conclusion, "In Exemplari deficiebant duo folia, quæ abscisa fuerunt." It is singular, that no deficiency is mentioned here by the Editors of Cicero. The last Oration but one contains the following Colophon :

"Scriptum per me Andream del Zeno notarium Placentinum in Civitate Venetiarum a die xii. Octobris usque ad diem vi. Maii MCCCCXLVIII."

2229 HOMERI ILIAS ET ODYSSEA, una cum Batrachomyomachia et Hymnis: cum Præfatione Græca Demetrii Chalcondylæ et Latina Bernardi Nerlii typographi ad Petrum Medices Laurentii Filium: præmisso Herodoto ac Plutarcho de Vita Homeri et Dionis Chrysostomi Dissertatio.

FIRST EDITION. A most splendid specimen of Typography and of great literary importance, as appears by the following extract from Harles's Fabricius, vol. i. p. 414.

“Permultæ sunt in hac editione lectiones bonæ, quæ temere postea neglectæ sunt: hinc ab Ernestio ad textum Homeri melius constituendum utiliter est collata: diligentior tamen meret curam ad comparandam illam cum reliquis.”

The present is a very fine copy from the Harleian Library, and has been recently splendidly rebound in Two Volumes, in red morocco, with joints, &c. by Lewis.

Florentiæ, M.CCCC.LXXXVIII.

2231 HORATIUS—PERSIUS—JUVENALIS.

A more valuable Latin Classical MS. than the present will not be found in the Catalogues of the most celebrated Collections of MSS. including those of the late Dr. Burney and Professor Meermann.

It is in folio, written upon vellum, in the large UNCIAL ROMAN CHARACTER, with the name of the Scribe at the end of each Author, and the date of MCCCXCI affixed to the Horace. The Juvenal is thus concluded,

“Stephanus scripsit
Istud volumen.”

Its intrinsic excellence is not inferior to the splendour of its writing, and the readings are said to be optimæ notæ: bound in hog-skin, with joints, by Lewis.

2837 LUCRETIVS (TITUS CARUS) DE RERUM NATURA—JOANNES RAINALDUS MENNIUS EXCRIPSIT.

A most exquisite specimen of the taste with which the MSS. of the Classic Authors were occasionally illuminated by the Italians. The first page is surrounded with a surprisingly rich border, painted partly from the antique; and the first lines of each book are emblazoned in gold. The capital letters throughout are alternately illuminated in gold and colours. Those at the commencement of each Book are very splendid indeed. It was formerly in the possession of Mr. Poore, and is mentioned by Wakefield in his Preface to Lucretius “ Sed et alium insuper scriptum librum de quo nihil cogitaveram, mihi permisit evolvendum vir humanissimus Edvardus Poore, cum promptissima benignitate, a laudabilibus in bonas litteras affectibus derivata. Nimirum manus recentior hunc codicem exaravit: quum vero cujusvis impressi typis libri non sit apographon sed codicem quemdam MS. certissime in exemplar habuerit, non spernenda est ejus auctoritas quæ antiquiorum librorum lectionibus in subsidium accedat.” The late Dr. Burney offered a very large price for it when in the possession of Mr. Poore. It was afterwards the property of the present Duke of Marlborough. It has been recently rebound in Venetian morocco in compartments with leather inside, gilt and embossed leaves, by Lewis.

“ Finito libro sit laus et Gloria Christo,
 Quinta vita XVI de codicis explicit hic pars.
 Quis partes quinque distinguiter liber iste.
 Signant quinque plagas in Christi corpore factas
 Nam manus atque pedes latus valide perforati sunt
 Cetera sententiæ capitula vulnera monstrant.
 Lancea crux clava spinæ morsque toleravi
 Demonstrant quæ miserorum crimina lavi.

This is followed by a French Treatise, Prologue du Simon Maistre Jehan Jarson de sus la passion—and by Vita et passio Jesu Christi per Carmina a Beato Bernardo composita.”

- 3808 ROBERT OF KNARESBOROUGH, (St.) MS. upon Vellum.

These are unique and unprinted Memorials of St. Robert of Knaresborough, and extremely curious. The following account of the volume was communicated by Mr. Douce.

" Robert Flower, the celebrated hermit of Knaresborough, was, according to tradition, son of the Mayor of York. He lived in the Reign of King John, who visited him in his cell and bestowed on him lands, &c. as mentioned in the present volume, where a curious question that he asked the King is recorded.

This person is supposed to have founded the order of Robertines or Trinitarians: but its history is very obscure, as are the accounts of Robert himself, who has been confounded with another person of that name mentioned by Matthew Paris, as living near a century after the Reign of King John, and who is elsewhere made an Abbot of Knaresborough. The cell in which Robert lived is still remaining at Knaresborough, where they used to sell an abridged account of him, originally compiled by Gent of York under the title of Piety displayed, 12mo. The hermitage is also described by Leland in his Itinerary, I. 98.

Bishop Gibson seems to have been acquainted with some legendary account of Robert, see his Camden under Knaresborough. I have not yet discovered any other MS. legend in old English Verse, but there is a life of St. Robert by one Stodley among the Harleian MSS. No. 3775.

The present MS. contains three lives of St. Robert, the first in Latin rhyming triplets; the second in Latin prose: the third in English verse. All or some of these may have been compiled by some monk or hermit of Knaresborough, perhaps by the President (as he here calls himself) of the order of Trinitarians, who has a metrical prayer to St. Robert to aid him in the discharge of his official duties, &c. The rest of the MS. consists of Invocations in Latin and English to the Saint; and near the end there is an account in English verse of the foundation of the Order of the Holy Trinity. Whoever was the author of the English life, he seems to have had a better knack at this sort of composition, than most or perhaps any of his contemporaries; and his lines are unusually smooth and harmonious. The description of the appearance to Robert of his mother's ghost is particularly deserving of notice. Her reappearance to thank him for the prayers he had successfully offered for her suffering soul, and her last blessing on him are eminently beautiful and impressive."

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs or sections, with some lines being more distinct than others. The ink is dark, but the paper is aged and discolored.

Small, faint handwritten text or a signature at the bottom of the page, possibly indicating a date or a name.
